FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

Other Fiscal Impact – The precise amount allocated to and from the Hybrid Trust is unknown and dependent upon multiple unknown factors and cannot be reasonably determined. Any future appropriation made by the General Assembly to the Legacy Trust will be an increase in state expenditures; the extent and timing of which are unknown and dependent upon multiple unknown factors and cannot be reasonably determined.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (007836): Adds language to the original bill specifying that employer contributions for political subdivision employees shall be paid by the respective political subdivision. Authorizes the Director of the Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System (TCRS) to determine the amount required for political subdivision and local education agency employer contributions.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Based on information provided by the TCRS, current statutorily required employer contributions are sometimes greater than the actuarially determined contribution (ADC) to meet benefit liabilities.
- The precise amount of excess funding that will be deposited into the Hybrid Trust in any given year is dependent on multiple unknown factors.
- The precise amount of funding that will be required to be paid from the Hybrid Trust to fund employer reserve accounts that are not sufficient to meet benefit liabilities is dependent upon multiple unknown factors.
- The net impact on the newly-created Hybrid Trust cannot be reasonably determined.
- No change to employer contributions or benefit payments for hybrid plan participants; the reserve funding could prevent owed benefits from not being paid when required.
- Any one-time increase in state expenditures required and the timing of such expenditures from the General Fund to fund a Legacy Trust insufficiency is dependent upon multiple unknown factors and cannot be reasonably determined.
- The precise amount of administrative funding required by the Treasurer to fund investment of the Trusts is dependent on the amount allocated and invested, funding for this would be paid from the Trusts.
- Any expenditure for the trustees to meet and file reports can be handled within existing resources and are considered not significant.
